

Communications, Advertising, Marketing & Media
ITEM	TOPIC		TIME	SPEAKER NAME	JOB TITLE	ORGANISATION	EMAIL
Programme Director				Mr David G. Hlango	Managing Director
Opening Keynote	Women Must Lead the Future of Africa's Influence, Media & Communications Economy	How will women shape Africa's consumer influence, media power, digital innovation, and brand narratives to build globally competitive brands and drive the future of the communications economy?	11:00-11:15	Noma Phiso	Director, Content General Entertainment(English and Portuguese speaking Africa)	Multichoice, Canal+ Africa	noma.phiso@multichoice.co.za Letter Sent
High-Impact Panel	Women, Media & the Future of Brand Power	Why will the future belong to brands that leverage technology, consumer intelligence, storytelling, cultural relevance, and trust to build influence and drive sustainable growth?	11:15 - 11:45	Thandiswa Nomagha - Jayne	Communications Consultant	Mastercard Foundation Africa Growth Fund	thandiswa@commercecommunications.com Letter Sent
				Melanie Ramjee	Managing Director	Tutone Communications	Invitation sent via LinkedIn
				Nunu Nshingila	Chairperson	Women for Women International	Invitation sent via LinkedIn
				Wend Nkomozi Ndlovu	Editor in Chief - BONA Print	haba! MEDIA
				Ursula Martini	Host and Founder	The Conversation Capitalist
				Najedi Jaarai	CEO	Cherry Republik Group
Firechat	Brand Commercialisation, Digital Influence & Market Expansion	How can organisations and women-led brands transform visibility into commercial value through digital influence, strategic partnerships, market expansion, and brand monetisation?	11:45- 12:15	Veli Ngubane	Chairperson	The Department of Communications and Digital Technologies IMC Charter Council
				Zibiso Mshwaneni	Group Chief Executive Officer	M&A Brands	zibiso@mkshwagati.co.za Letter Sent
				Samantha (Dorothy) Bech	Communications Leader - Africa	EY	Invitation sent via LinkedIn
				Shweshwe Thapane	Chief Marketing Officer	Momentum Insure
	Noa Break & Networking		12:15- 12:30	Scientia Nkomo	Group Head: Corporate Communications	Primedia Group	Letter Sent
Creative Economy, Film, Media & Entertainment
ITEM	TOPIC		TIME	SPEAKER NAME	JOB TITLE	ORGANISATION	EMAIL
Opening Keynote Address	Women Must Lead Africa's Creative & Cultural Economy	How will women leverage creativity, technology, storytelling, and intellectual property to shape Africa's cultural influence, own creative assets, and build globally competitive creative enterprises?	12:30-12:45	Kaye Ann Williams	Director: Series & Film, Netflix Africa	Netflix
Executive Panel Discussion	Women, Storytelling & the Business of Cultural Influence	How are AI, streaming platforms, content creation, and digital innovation transforming the creative economy, and how can women commercialise creativity, build sustainable media brands, and unlock new opportunities for growth?	12:45-13:30	Lulu Mela	Executive Producer & Creator: Lavish Season 1, 1802 - Love Defines Time	Hela Media
				Mwali Thabathe	Joburg Film Festival Project Lead	Joburg Film Festival
				Didirle Khunou	Lead Actor	Joburg Theatre
				Calvin Sefala CA(SA)	CEO	Urban Brew Studios
				Ingrid Engelbrecht	Showrunner, Director and Producer
FireSide Chat	Content Commercialisation, Streaming & Global Market Access	How can women-led creative businesses protect and monetise intellectual property, access global markets, forge strategic partnerships, and transform creativity into long-term economic power?	13:30-14:00	Claire Morris	Series Director	Black Swan Media
				Viva Liles Wilkin	Television and Media Producer	Quintical Pictures
				Connie Ferguson	Director	Ferguson Films
				Amy Montalvo	Founder Chief Storyteller	ONEPASS Productions
				Zikona Anam Delese	line producer & Series Producer	Black Brain Pictures	